

Be Swine

by: caRa carroll

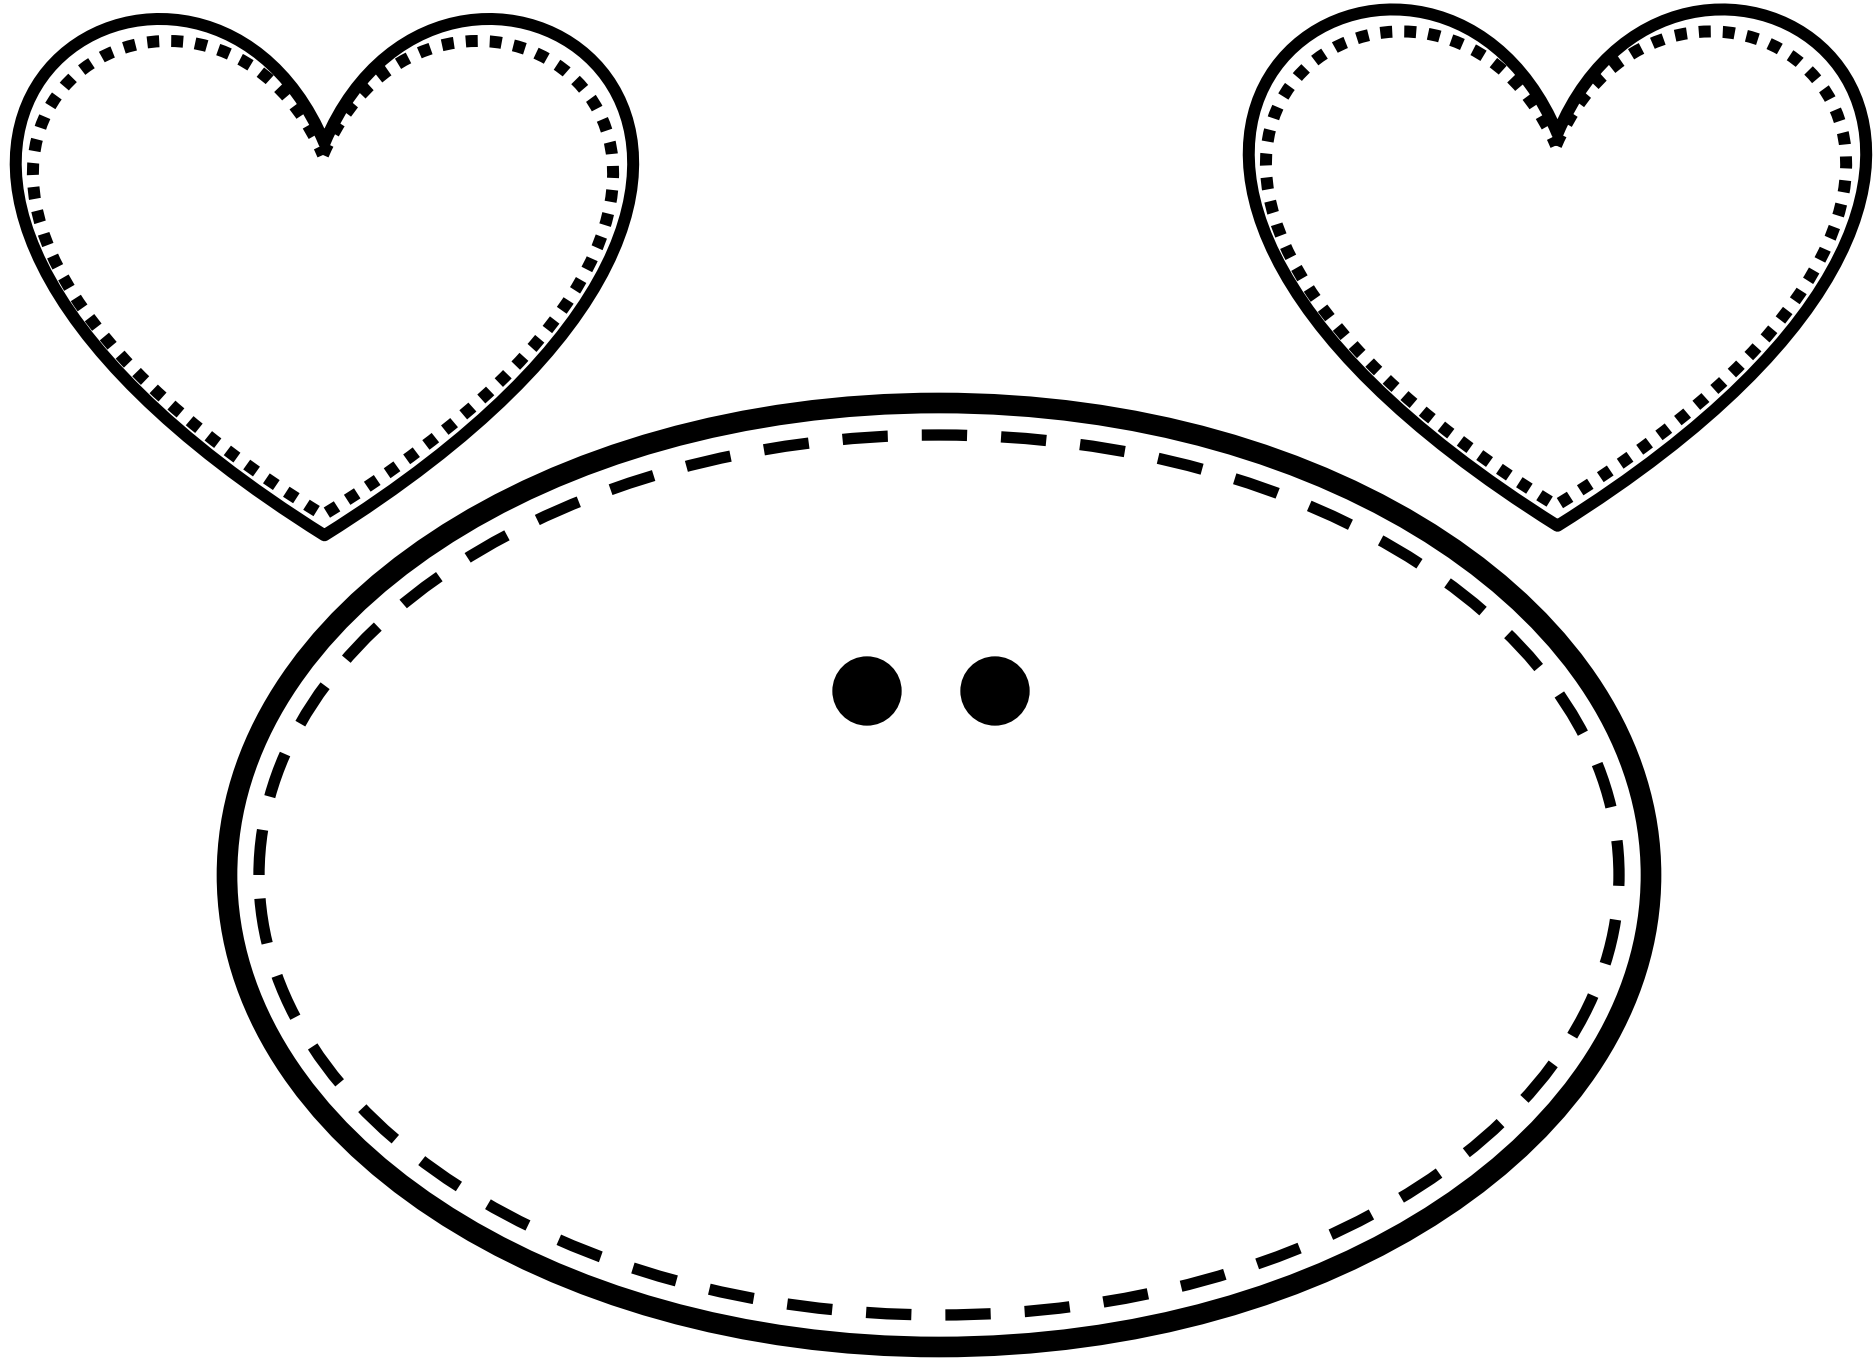

Will you be my valenswine?

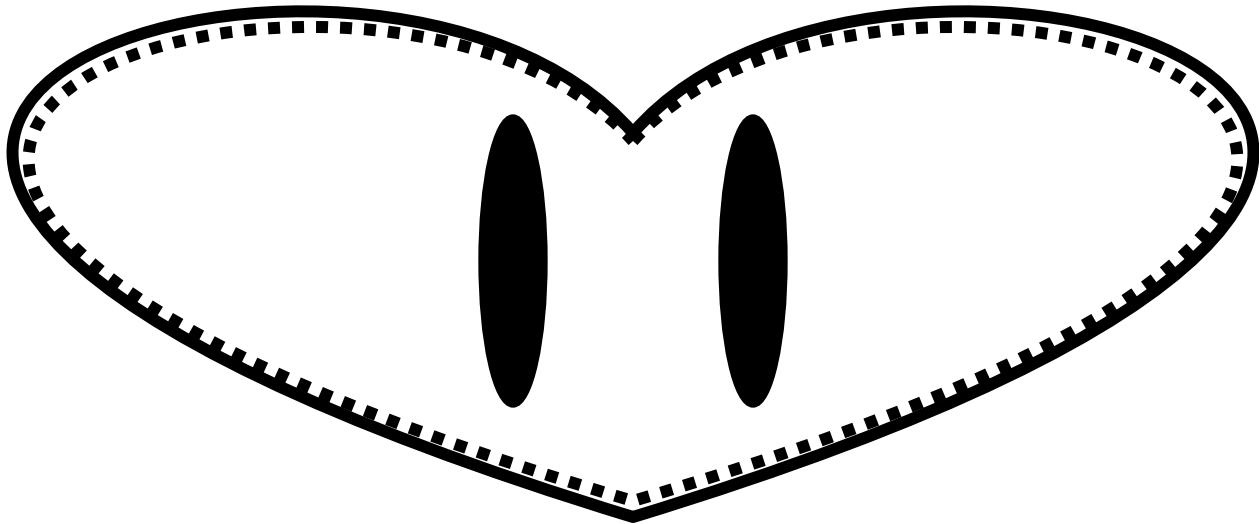

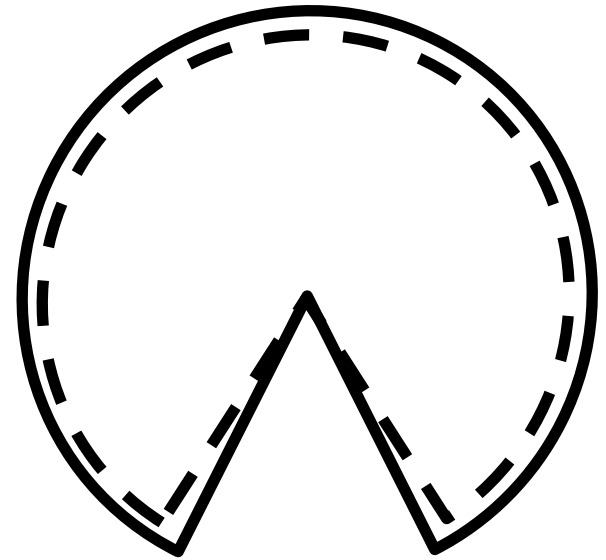

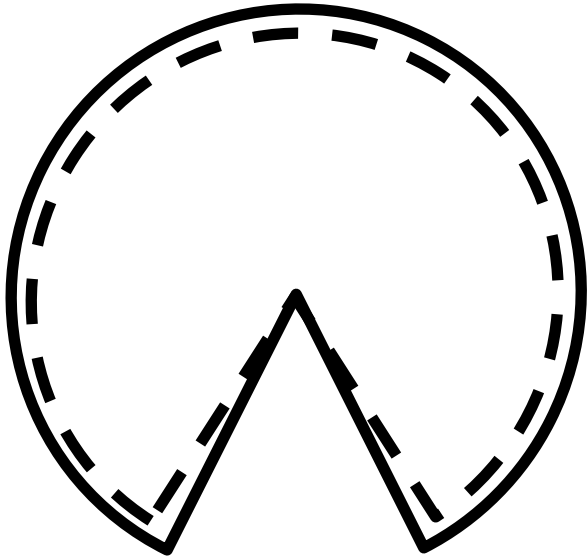

"Will You Be My Valenswine?" by Teresa Bateman is one of my favorite Valentine books. It's great for teaching SO many concepts! Rhyming, onomatopoeia, synonyms, word families, inferring, etc. The next few pages include a text-to-self craftivity, writing template, and a few different graphic organizers. I hope your kids enjoy making their own little "Valenswine" as much as mine did!

for this little craftivity, you'll need two different shades of pink paper. I used pink construction paper and pink printer paper and ran everything off on the copier/risograph. easy peasy!

Pig graphics courtesy of From the Pond

Write about who you want to be your valentine and tell why.

Name: _____

Understanding Story Elements

Will You Be My Valenswine?

Beginning

Middle

End

Name: _____

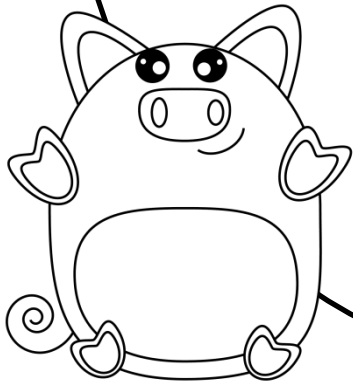

Will You Be My Valenswine & Love, Splat!

Compare and Contrast

Polly

Both

Splat

Name: _____

Write one adjective/describing word in each space to describe the main character in the story.

WILL YOU be my valentine? character wheel

