Five Little Turkeys

Read and Colored by:

Once upon a time, there were five little turkeys sitting on a plate. The first one said, "Doesn't this table look great?"

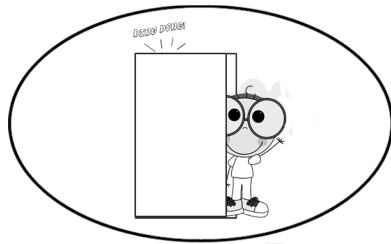

DING DONG!

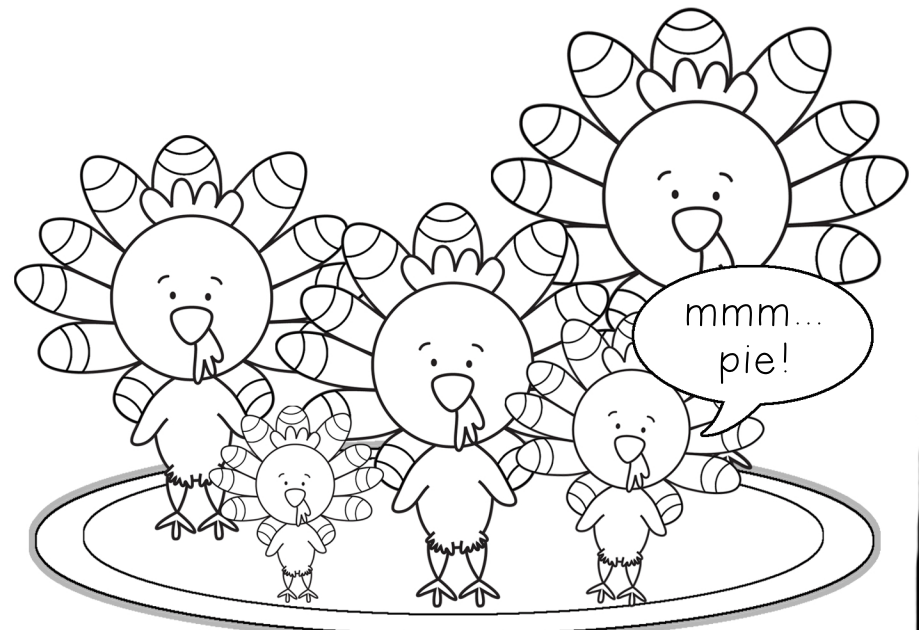

Then 'DING DONG' went the door, and in came the guests and the turkeys never stopped running to even take a rest!

The End!

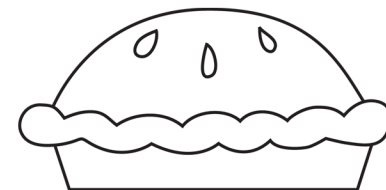

I'm out of here!

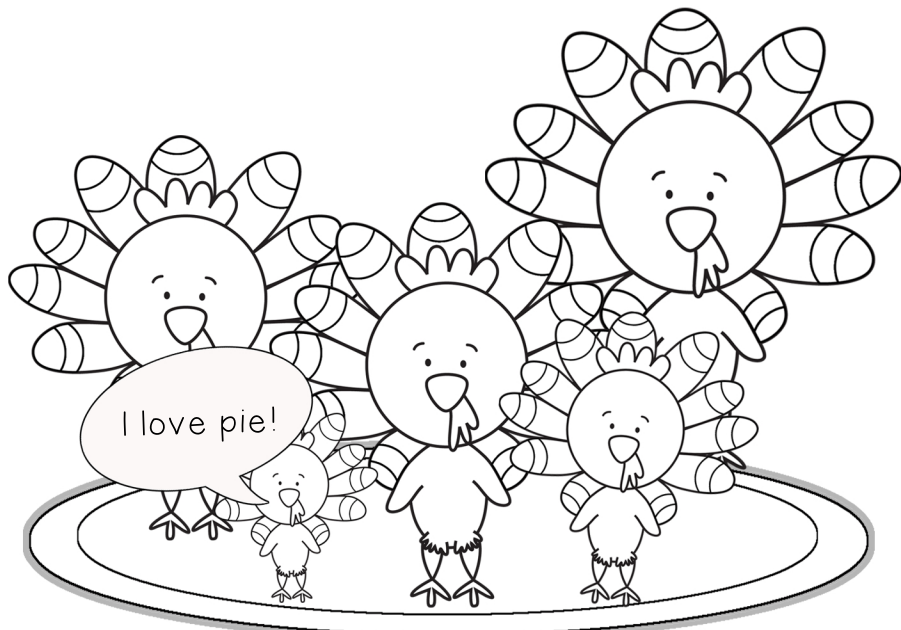

The fifth one said,
"Let's run, let's run, before all the Thanksgiving dinner guests come!"

The second one said,
"I smell pie in the air!"

The third one said,
"I hope we get a huge share!"

The fourth one looked around and said, "Hey, something is not right!
Why are we sitting on this big Thanksgiving plate tonight?"

Retelling Puppets

Color, cut and glue these puppets to popsicle sticks. Practice retelling the story to a friend.
