Turkey Trouble

By Wendi Silvano

Read the book, Turkey Trouble and discuss the different disguises the turkey wore.

Have the students brainstorm a list of disguises the turkey could wear.

Then, show them the Wanted sign and discuss some things that students could give as a reward for the return of turkey.

For example, 2,000 legos
Two Barbie dolls

Do a simple directed drawing of a turkey and then let their creativity take over. Note: You may want to show them what a few of their Disguise ideas might look like just to get them going.

See student examples on the following page.
