

Word Study Ideas!!!

*Write your words in their sorts and circle all of the vowels

* Write each word, in their sorts, 3 times

*Take a practice home test. Write any missed words three times. Remember to do your test in the sorts.

* Write a letter to a friend using all of your words. Underline each of your spelling words.

* Choose any 8 words and use them in sentences. Be sure to underline your word study words. Pick one sentence to illustrate.

*Divide the words into sorts. Choose 3 words from each sort to find the meaning in a dictionary. Write the meaning for each word.

* Put all the words in ABC order (Alphabetical order).

*Write me a letter, using all of your words. Underline each word from your list.

*Write each of your words three times using a different color for each list.

* Write each word – using two different colors to show the consonants and vowels in your words.

*Create a cartoon strip using at least eight spelling words.

* Write a poem using at least 8 spelling words.

* Use graph paper to make a word-search puzzle that includes all of your spelling words.

*Divide your spelling words into syllables.

* Write a newspaper article using ten of your spelling words.

*Classify your spelling words according to their part of speech.

*Write a conversation between two people that includes at least 8 of your spelling words.

*Type your spelling list on a computer, with each list typed in a different font.

*Create a game that can be used to practice your spelling words.

*Spread pudding in a pan and write your spelling words in the pudding.

*Make a book that includes all of your spelling words.

*Write a "Dear Diary," entry that includes all of your spelling words.